Well where does one start!!!! Over the last few months it feels like I've been bashing my head against the wall. Times have been tough here at home - on all fronts - and I have had to take stock and prioritize my life to get everything into a meaningful sequence. Now I am going to put to practice what I am always preaching to everyone else and tackle each task with passion and determination.....

I am not going to let life take me down. As the renowned author Charles R. Swindoll quoted "Life is 10% what happens to you and 90% how you react to it";

I have to now start doing something about it!

Over the next few days I will be making certain requests and pleas and I am hoping and praying that you - my fellow aviators and supporters - will respond in kind.
